

ETF Investment Seminar

3 September 2012, The Exchange Auditorium, HKEx (Hong Kong)

Supported by Ping An of China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Co. Limited, Hong Kong Exchange and Clearing Limited successfully held an ETF investment seminar on 3 September 2012. Senior investment professionals, institutional investors, asset managers and stock brokers from some of the top financial institutions had attended the seminar, obtaining useful information about investing in ETFs as well as latest ETF market updates.

At the seminar, Mr. Benjamin Rudd, Executive Director and Head of Overseas Investment of PAAMC(HK), together with three distinguished speakers, including Mr. David Quah of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited, Mr. Gary Sum of SwissCapital Asia Limited and Mr. Joseph Leung of J.P. Morgan Securities (Asia Pacific) Limited, shared their insights on topics such as overview of Hong Kong ETF market, institutional investors' decision criteria, portfolio management, and outlook for Mainland China and Hong Kong Markets.

Mr. Rudd introduced the Ping An China/HK ETF series and shared his valuable insights on portfolio management.

From the left:

Mr. Gary Sum, Chairman of SwissCapital Asia Limited

Mr. David Quah, Assistant Vice President of Trading Division of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited

Mr. Benjamin Rudd, Executive Director and Head of Overseas Investment of Ping An of China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Co. Limited

Mr. Joseph Leung, Vice President of HK Strategy and China & HK Financials Asia Pacific Equity Research of J.P. Morgan Securities (Asia Pacific) Limited

Speakers answered audience questions about ETF investment during the seminar.